Re: Memorandum of Decision, Mississippi v. Tennessee, No. 143, Original

Dear Counsel:

I write to provide you with a memorandum of decision regarding defendants' pending motion for summary judgment. The memorandum concludes that the defendants' motion should be denied at this stage and that the case should proceed to an evidentiary hearing on the limited issue of whether this case involves an interstate resource.

As established by Order entered earlier this week, I will hold a preliminary pre-hearing conference on December 13. A final pre-hearing conference will be held in January before the evidentiary hearing begins.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Eugene E. Siler, Jr." with a stylized flourish at the end.

Eugene E. Siler, Jr.
